

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

I hope you guys understand this. I get the sense that Michael Powell has grievously underestimated how serious a matter this really is. Mr. Powell was selected for office BY the foxes he is supposed to be guarding on behalf of us hens -- the public. He should rise to his position, & see that he is in effect choosing between serving the interests of democracy, and serving a bunch of large corporations. I hope he will have the wisdom to do what is right.
